

Device Managed Services

Whether you are a government agency, blue light organisation or commercial entity, Capita Secure Solutions and Services (Capita) can provide a solution that is right for you.

- Bulk asset and inventory management
- Same day device swap out service
- Change/Configuration control
- Equipment logistics
- Repair/Service management
- Security cleared personnel
- UK based 24x7 ISO accredited service desk
- Nationwide network of service hubs
- Mobile field service team
- Tailor-made services
- Airwave TEA2 accredited

With over 20 years' experience, Capita offer market leading services to manage and protect mission critical devices allowing clients to focus on their core business.

Capita currently manage over 150,000 assets across a variety of technologies. These include but are not limited to, personal radio handsets, vehicle radios, body worn video cameras, mobile phones and tablets.

Underpinned by a UK-based 24x7 ISO accredited service desk, a nationwide network of service hubs and a team of mobile field service engineers, local support is never far away.

With all employees cleared to SC, Capita are ideally positioned to support large, complex and secure asset management requirements.

For more information on the available services or to discuss your requirements please contact us at:

✉ sss.info@capita.co.uk

🖱 www.capita-sss.com